

ALONE

By Doreen Szeto

When the world turns its face away from me
And I am left alone
With no one to share my pain
But I know I can trust in You
You hold my hand
And You understand
All that I'm going through
I know that through all my troubles
You will remain
Faithful and true by my side
I know when I'm forsaken by all that I've known
You'll be there.....For me

I wrote this poem as a thanksgiving to God for His faithfulness to me. In fact, this is only the beginning of a song I am working on. I began this song at a time when it seemed that there was no other person for me to pour out my heart to. It seemed that no one else could provide the comfort that I so badly needed. Although I did receive encouragement, there was still something that could not be comforted by human means. When it seemed that there was no one else to turn to, my faith came into practice. Because of my faith in God, I believe that I can still turn to Him for hope when I am alone. Even if the entire world turns away from me and I am all alone with not one to confide in, I have the assurance that I can trust in God. When everyone else is too busy to pay attention, He always has a listening ear. When no one else understands my problems, he offers a solution. Because He is God, He can understand everything that I'm going through. I have faith that through all of the trails and tribulations that I face throughout life, God will be faithful to me. Even if the entire world forsake me and I am left alone, I believe that God will be there...
...For me.
